

Daniel K. Elder, CKMP
Knowledge Officer and Chief Consultant

Highlights

Dan is the founder of the original NCO Website and its successors Squad-leader.com and Firstsergeant.com, which were grass-roots collaboration centers oriented towards Soldiers. He was awarded the first-ever Army Knowledge Management Pioneer Award in August 2003 by the Army CIO/G-6. In October 2005, he donated his successful sites to the Army, which became the BCKS NCO Net, winner of an Army 2007 Knowledge Management Award.

Following his retirement from the Army after a 26-year career, Dan joined Computer Sciences Corporation (CSC) as a Knowledge Management professional. In 2010 he formed Topsarge Business Solutions where he now serves as Knowledge Officer and Chief Consultant. He was awarded a Bachelors of Science degree in Business Administration from Touro University, California, and earned certification in Knowledge Management (CKMP) by the KM Professional Society. Dan currently provides Knowledge Management consultation services in support of III Corps and Fort Hood in Killeen, Texas.

Military Accomplishments

Dan entered the Army in Dec 1981 and served in a variety of enlisted leadership positions from squad leader to major Army Command level. His assignments included duty as an instructor, drill sergeant, first sergeant, and on the staff of the Sergeants Major Academy as a lesson developer, culminating with 11 years' experience as a Command Sergeant Major from battalion to ACOM. His operational deployment experience includes OPERATION Joint Endeavor in Bosnia-Herzegovina and OPERATION Iraqi Freedom in Iraq.

He was selected to serve as the Command Sergeant Major for then incoming Chief of Staff Gen. George Casey's transition team where he interviewed senior enlisted leaders Army-wide. He was general editor and author for the Center of Military History's book Sergeants Major of the Army, and was a long serving Advisory Team member for the Army Research Institute. He authored the book Educating Noncommissioned Officers and has published numerous articles for various periodicals. He has consulted with publishers and authors for a number books, including Guardians of the Republic, The Three Meter Zone, and The Shake and Bake Sergeant.

Dan is a graduate of all levels of NCOES. He completed the Command Sergeants Major Course, the Garrison CSM Course, the Battle Staff NCO Course, the CSM Force Management Course and the National Defense University's Keystone Command Senior Enlisted Leader Course. His military awards include the Distinguished Service Medal, two awards of the Legion of Merit, the Bronze Star Medal, and four awards of the Meritorious Service Medal. He is a recipient of the Ordnance Order of Samuel Sharpe and an Inductee into the U.S. Army Sergeants Major Academy Hall of Fame.